The Early Upanishads: Annotated Text And Translation (South Asia Research)

Synopsis

This is the full edition of the early Upanisads, the central scriptures of Hinduism. Featuring Patrick Olivelle's acclaimed new English translation (Oxford, 1996), it also includes the complete Sanskrit text, as well as variant readings, scholarly emendations, and explanations of Olivelle's choices of particular readings. The volume also contains a concordance of the two recensions of the Brhadaranyaka Upanisad, and an extensive bibliography.

Customer Reviews

The ideal edition for the serious investigator who is not a specialist in sanskrit or sanskrit studies. Contains the earliest and perhaps most important Upanisads which predate Buddhism and are likely to have influenced Gotama Buddha. The sanskrit text is well printed in nagari script. The translation is clear and readable.

Note that a virtually identical edition of this book is available at less than half the price both on and through other retailers under ISBN 8121508614 Early Upanisads; Annotated Text and Translation.
